

MY BORDER HOMESTAY

Chushul is a village located in the Leh district of the union territory of Ladakh in India. It is situated in the eastern part of Ladakh, near the Line of Actual Control (LAC) that separates India and China. The village is strategically important due to its proximity to the China.

It comprises high, broken mountains and heights of Thakung, Black Top, Helmet Top, Gurung Hill, and Magger Hill besides passes such as Rezang La and Reqin La, the Spanggur Gap, and the Chushul valley.

The village is situated at a height of over 13,000 feet close to the LAC.

Ladakh Autonomous Hill Development Council, Leh
Department of Tourism, Leh

Chushul

a Vibrant Village

Two days Vibrant Village Programme at Chushul

11th - 12th Sep, 2023

The Changthang Wildlife Sanctuary (or the Changthang Cold Desert Wildlife Sanctuary) is a high altitude wildlife sanctuary located in the Ladakh adjunct of the Changthang plateau in the Leh District of the union territory of Ladakh. It is important as one of the few places in India with population of the Kiang or Tibetan Wild Ass, as well as the rare Black-necked Crane. Changthang Wildlife Sanctuary covers an area of 4000 km²

Programme:

Day 01

Training to Homestay Owner
Display of Local Products,
Handloom and Handicraft Products.
&
Films

Day 02

Cultural Programme
Display of Local Products,
Handloom and Handicraft Products
&
Certificate Distribution

For further information please contact:
+91-1982-252297
Adtleh@gmail.com

The nomads of Changthang one of the best tourist attractions.

Hiding between the Himalayas untouched by modernisation.